Relatives mentioned in the correspondence of James & Patience Black

"Nobody ever lived in the past--they lived in THEIR present. To understand the thoughts and writings of someone, you need to study about the times in which they lived." David McCullough

"Martin Luther King Jr. in his last speech quoted part of a 1930 interview of Albert Einstein: 'If we are to go forward, we must first look back. The future is an unknown, but a somewhat predictable unknown. To look to the future we must first look back upon the past. That is where the seeds of the future were planted."

Spread out on the table-Writing names, dates and places
As fast as I'm able.

Microfilms, fiches, Computers and such, Sometimes I get discouraged, It all seems too much.

Books on library shelf In confusing array--Names just keep appearing--Guess I'm here to stay. I find pieces of puzzle Branch, trunk, and leaf. It's beginning to grow Just like a tree.

It seems that my ancestors
Gone on before
Want me to remember
That they're something more--

Than names on a tombstone,
In census, or book.
They want me to know them,
They want me to look.

Note from Sandra Smith Gwilliam: I am so grateful to all of those who helped me with this daunting task! These letters and end notes will take you on a journey back into James and Patience Crain Black's present to see how they, and those around them, laid the foundation for our future.

In order to have a better understanding and insight into the lives of those in the letters—this document tries to match nicknames with the actual names of the friends and relatives James and Patience wrote about in their correspondence. Sometimes it was difficult, because they weren't always consistent with what they called everyone. Another problem became apparent when I realized that some nicknames referred to more than one person. Naming children the same as other relatives was popular. There will be mistakes. Not everyone is identified, but hopefully it is enough for now.

A few tidbits are included about the lives of many of those in the letters. Hopefully what little I have done will encourage you to seek out other documents, biographies and more facts about the lives of your ancestors. May you enjoy reading the letters and gain a partial understanding of how they thought and lived, as well as an appreciation of their lives. As you read, I am sure you will begin to feel you know them, and realize they truly are more than names on a headstone, or census or book.

Crain family mentioned in the correspondence of James & Patience Crain Black.

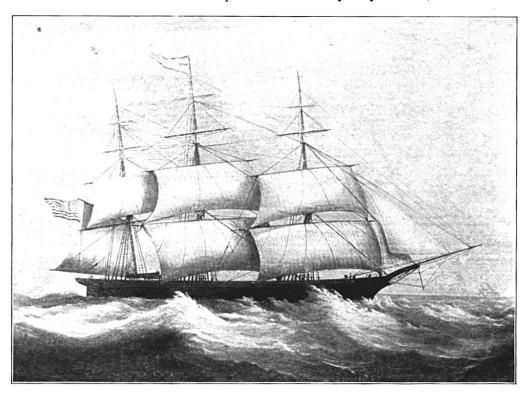

Only a few letters seem to mention Crain family relatives, other than Joel B. & Sarah's family.

"Grandma" Mary Mildred "Polly" Burditt Crain was born about 1792 in Edgefield, Edgefield, South Carolina. She died 16 Feb 1866, Nacogdoches, Texas, buried Old North Church Cemetery, Nacogdoches (findagrave#116111759). She married Ambrose Hulon Crain 8 Sep 1811, in North Carolina. Ambrose was born about 1789 in Franklin County, Georgia. He died 25 November 1850, in Nacogdoches, Texas and is buried in the Old North Church Cemetery.

"Uncle Newell"

Newell Walton Crain, the son of Ambrose Hulon Crain and Mary Burditt was born 25 July 1826 in Tennessee. He died 28 December 1875 in Tuxpan, Veracruz de Ignacio de la Llave, Mexico. He married Elizabeth Johnson Cooper 7 September 1848 in Cass County, Texas.

(Note from Kathleen Crain Tol: "There is a findagrave memorial #116114312 in Old North Church Cemetery in Nacogdoches. Whether they hauled his body all the way back there for burial is questionable. Newell died three months after his son, Judson Carey Crain was lost with the Crain ship, "Witch of the Wave", in the September 1875, Indianola Hurricane. Judson was the captain and was only 20 years old)

"Aunt Lizzie" Elizabeth Johnson Cooper was born 14 March 1830 in Lawrence County, Alabama. She died 7 April 1923 in Stamford, Jones, Texas. She is buried in San Angelo, Tom Jones County, Texas. ["Aunt Lizzie" also refers to Patience's Aunt Mary Elizabeth Wadsworth, wife of Andrew Jackson Smith—the brother of Sarah Elvina Smith Crain.]

"Grandma sent for me today to stay with her while Uncle Newel [Newel Walton Crain] and Aunt Lizzie [Elizabeth Johnson Cooper Crain] is gone to Cass Co. but I cannot go—too many babies." From a letter written by Patience Crain Black from South Bosque, January 1863, Page 101. Patience was helping her sister-in-law, Mary "Mollie" McDaniel Crain, with a new baby, "Pincushion" (Ada Bell Crain) as well as her own baby, Joel David Black (5 ½ months old). Mollie was ill and the baby wouldn't nurse.

Note from Ted Crain [Newell and Lizzie's great great grandson]: "Newell was a CSA artillery officer at Galveston, TX in the 1st Texas Heavy Artillery. He returned to Waco, Texas, several times during the war.

Newell and Lizzie had a plantation of several thousand acres on the Brazos River bottom near Robinsonville (Robinson today) just South of Waco, Texas, but they also had a home in Waco on the current Baylor University Campus grounds.

Newell sold his home to J. W. SPEIGHT (Colonel in command of the 15th Texas Infantry Regiment) about 1866 when their family went to Tuxpan, Mexico.

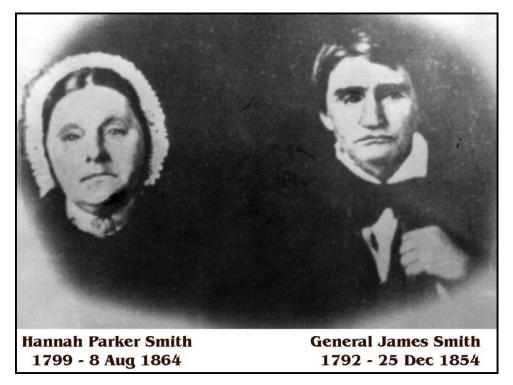

Newell Walton Crain was Joel Burditt Crain's younger brother. They were in the lumber business and had one of the first sawmills in McLennan County. It was located on the Brazos River 7 or 8 miles South of Waco, Texas. Their father, Ambrose had been in the lumber and grain milling business in Tennessee before the Crane/Crain family came to Texas in 1833. The mills had been the source of the large Crain family wealth. I suspect that the trees for lumber were cut from Newell's property near the sawmill. "

"Cousin Nute Crain"

[Pg 126] South Bosque, March 12 (1863) "Cousin Nute Crain and wife came to see us last Monday and left Friday." [Not sure who they are.]

Descendants of General James & Hannah Parker Smith

Mentioned in the correspondence of James & Patience Crain Black

"General James Smith" son of David Smith and Barsheba Harrington, was born on 10 Sep 1792 in Spartanburg, South Carolina, died on 25 Dec 1854, in Henderson, Rusk, Texas, at age 62, and was buried in Smith Park, in Henderson. Another name for James was Captain Slick.

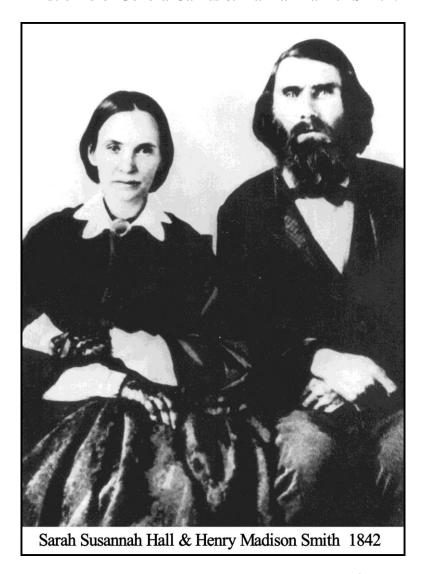

"Grandma" Hannah Parker, daughter of Isaiah Parker and Elizabeth Guyton, South Carolina. Hannah was born about 1799 in South Carolina, died on 8 Aug 1864 in Waco, McLennan, Texas about age 65, and was buried in Smith Park, Henderson, Rusk, Texas. [Note: At least one name on the plaque of who is buried in the Smith gravesite is incorrect. Barsheba Ann married James Madison Draper and is buried by her husband in the Pine Grove Cumberland Presbyterian Cemetery, Pinehill, Rusk, Texas.]

Plaque at Smith Park, Henderson, Rusk Co., Texas

First child of General James & Hannah Parker Smith:

"Uncle Matt" Captain Henry Madison Smith (*James (General)*¹) was born on 17 Nov 1817 in South Carolina, died on 7 Dec 1882 in Oglesby, Coryell, Texas at age 65, and was buried after 7 Dec 1882 in Post Oak Cemetery, Oglesby, Coryell, Texas.

James next married his cousin, Martha A. Crain "Mat", daughter of Joel Burditt Crain and Sarah Elvina Smith. Martha was born on 16 Jul 1844 in Texas and died in 1928 in Plainview, Hale, Texas at age 84.

Mat Crain wrote on October 1st, 1864: "Bro Jimmie wrote you in his letter of Cousin Jim Smith's being seriously wounded . ..one of Cousin Jim's messmates wrote to Uncle Matt [that] he was seriously wounded in the small of the back with a piece of shell. He has since heard Cousin Jim was mending. He also heard he had professed religion."

Letter 1 Dec 1863, "Uncle Mat received a letter from Cousin Jim last week, written since the battle of Chickamauga, in which he was slightly wounded. In honor of his gallantry on the battlefield he was sent by the Commanding General to carry the colors which they took to Richmond."

Note from Tony Pace, a descendant of James DeKalb Smith: "I found an entry for James D. Smith, age 19, Tenth (Nelson's) Infantry which seems to have been transferred around a lot! Eventually, the 10th Infantry became "Deshler's Brigade, Cleburne's Division, Hill's Corps, Army of Tennessee", which took part in the Battle of Chickamauga."

"Cousin Sue" –sometimes "Sue" Susan Melvina Smith was born on 17 Dec 1844 in Henderson, Rusk, Texas, USA, died on 2 Feb 1929 in Phoenix, Maricopa, Arizona at age 84, and was buried in Papago Park.

"Jess" Jesse Washington Ellison and Sue are mentioned a lot in the letters. They marry during the time the letters are written. Patience wrote that they were "as happy as dead pigs in the sunshine." Susan married Jesse Washington Ellison, son of Jesse Ellison and Isabella Stuart, on 14 Feb 1864 in Texas. Jesse was born on 22 Sep 1841 in Brazos, Texas, died on 24 Jan 1924 in Phoenix, Maricopa, Arizona at age 82, and was buried in Papago Park, Phoenix, Maricopa, Arizona. The burial site looks like a pyramid.

In the 1860 US census in McLennan, his surname was Allison. George Wylie Hunt, the husband of their daughter, Helen Duett Ellison Hunt, was the first, third, fifth, and seventh governor of the State of Arizona.

"Lou" Mary Louisa Ellison (sister of Jesse Washington Ellison), born

September 1, 1838 in Morgan County, Alabama, to Jesse Ellison and Isabella Stuart.

"Mrs. Wiley Mrs. Wiley is Margaret Ellison (sister of Jesse Washington Ellison), wife of James Black's cousin, Major Wiley G. Jones.

Margaret is the daughter of Jesse Ellison and Isabella Stuart.

John P. Smith was born about 1846 in Henderson, Rusk, Texas. Death date is unknown. He does not seem to be mentioned in the letters.

1854 in Henderson, Rusk, TX, died 17 Sep 1925 in Durango, La Plata, Colorado-- age 71,. Buried in Cedar Hill Cemetery, Cedar Hill, San Juan, NM. He is only mentioned once in the letters, when he was bitten by a rattlesnake.

Henry married his double cousin, Delilah Jo "Dillie Jo" Smith, daughter of Joseph P. Smith and Minerva Ann Hall, 24 Jan 1875 in Coryell, Texas. [Their mothers were sisters and their fathers were brothers.] Dillie Jo was born on 26 Jul 1857 in Rusk, Texas, died on 24 May 1927 in Durango, La Plata, Colorado at age 69, and was buried in Cedar Hill Cemetery, Cedar Hill, San Juan, New Mexico. Various spellings: Delilah, Delia, DJ, Dilia. Dillie Jo and Dilly.

"Helen" Helen M. Smith born 1857 in Texas and died Dec 1863 in Texas about age 6. 1 Dec 1863 Patience wrote: "Helen is alive yet, but not improving."

William Lee Smith was born on 25 Jan 1863 in Texas, died on 28 Sep 1886 in Coryell, Texas at age 23, and was buried in Post Oak Cemetery, Oglesby, Coryell, Texas. Patience wrote: [Page 112] Feb 1st 1863, "Aunt Sarah and Matt has another son her seventeenth child and twelfth son they speak of calling him Gen. Lee. I think Stone Wall is a much prettier name."

William married Alice Elliott Norton, daughter of Rev James Washington Norton and Nancy Caledonia Elliott, 28 Oct 1883 in Coryell, Texas. Alice was born 23 Dec 1866 in Ripley, Tippah, Mississippi. She died 25 Sep 1948 in Fort Worth, Texas.

According to Patience Crain in her letter about William Lee Smith [Page 112, Feb 1st 1863, there are 8 more children (5 sons & 3 daughters) born to Henry M. & Sarah Smith that have no other documentation.

Second child of General James & Hannah Parker Smith:

"Mother" Sarah Elvina Smith (James (General)¹) was born on 18 Dec 1818 in Spartanburg, Spartanburg, South Carolina, died on 10 Sep 1902 in South Bosque, McLennan, Texas at age 83, and was buried in Harris Creek Cemetery.

"Aunt Lizzie" Andrew married Mary Elizabeth Wadsworth, daughter of Martin H. Wadsworth, on 25 September 1851 in Rusk, Texas. Mary was born about 1834 in South Carolina and died after 1880 in Rusk, Texas. [Aunt Lizzie also refers to Patience's Aunt Elizabeth Johnson Cooper Crain, wife of Newell Crain.]

Andrew Jackson Smith and his family were mentioned in a couple of letters Patience wrote from South Bosque:

Dec 1862, [Page 84], "Uncle Jack's wife and Grandma [Hannah Smith] has been very sick."

Sixth child of General James & Hannah Parker Smith:

"Uncle Nute" Isaac Newton Smith (James (General) 1) was born about 1828 in Lincoln, Tennessee, died in May 1886 about age 58, and was buried in Moreville, Ottawa, Oklahoma, USA. He lost his arm in the Civil War. Patience writes about his injury several times. Once she said he didn't miss his arm too much. Nute is the son who brought his mother's body back to Henderson from Waco to bury her beside her husband at the family gravesite at Smith Park. Family stories say that he packed her body in ice in the wagon.

[Pages 58-60] South Bosque July 28th [1862], Patience wrote: "Uncle Nute returned yesterday he looks rather old with but one arm his health is tolerably good. His arm is nearly cured. I saw a letter he has from Gen. Beauregard approving very highly his gallant and daring conduct."

"Aunt Mary"

Nute married his cousin, Mary Agnes Childress, daughter of James Childress and Sarah Parker [Hannah Parker Smith's sister], 2 May 1849 in Rusk, Texas. Mary was born in Jan 1835 in Alabama. Aunt Mary [Mary Agness Childress, wife of Isaac Newton"Nute" Smith, the son of General James & Grandma Hannah Parker Smith] came up this evening.

Some children of "Nute and "Aunt Mary" were:

Newton Smith was born in Jan 1850 in Rusk, Texas and died in Apr 1850 in Rusk, Texas.

"Star" Lone Star Smith was born in 1853 in Texas, died in 1932 at age 79.

Buried in Rock Cemetery, Granite, Greer, Oklahoma. Patience wrote from South Bosque on February 6th, 1864 [Page 235], "Aunt Lizzie and Mat will carry Star (age 12) to San Antonio to school next week."

General James Smith was born in Dec 1854 in Waco, McLennan, Texas, died in 1932 in Granite, Greer, Oklahoma at age 78, and was buried in Rock Cemetery, Granite, Greer, Oklahoma. He was named for his grandfather, General James Smith, who died in December 1854.

Seventh child of General James & Hannah Parker Smith:

"Uncle Jasper"

William Jasper Smith (James (General)<sup>1</sup>) was born on 28 Mar 1830 in Lincoln, Tennessee, died on 1 May 1894 at age 64, and was buried in Meredian Cemetery section M, Bosque, Texas.

On Sept 6, 1863, Patience wrote, "Uncle Jasper has a discharge."

Jasper married his cousin, Sarah Jane Childress, daughter of James Childress and Sarah Parker, on 16 Jul 1851 in Henderson, Rusk, Texas. Sarah was born on 15 Mar 1836 in Alabama, died on 30 Dec 1917 in Blum, Hill, Texas at age 81, and was buried in Meredian Cemetery, Bosque, Texas. The cause of her death was Pneumonia.

On January 20th 1860, his cousin, Margaret A. Childress wrote, "I am here at Jasper's which is a very public place."

The children of Jasper and Sarah mentioned in the letters were:

"Wallace" William Wallace Smith was born 16 Feb 1858 in Texas, died 15 May 1894 in Texas at age 36, and was buried in Meredian Cemetery.

"Carrie" Caroline Smith was born 1 Jul 1863 in Texas. Died 2 Dec 1921, age 58.

"Frank or Fannie" Frances Childress, born about 1842, to James & Sarah Parker Childress was the sister of both Sarah Jane Childress and Mary Agnes Childress. Frances wrote from Henderson, Texas on March 17, 1869, "Carrie and Wallace are not going to school. Jasper's health is not good."

Eighth child of General James & Hannah Parker Smith:

Francis Marion Smith

Francis Marion Smith (James (General)¹) was born about 1833 in Tennessee May have died before the Civil War. He is not mentioned in the letters. His brother, Birt Smith's will mentions "The heirs of Francis Smith". His mother's probate also mentions the heirs. There is no documentation for a wife or children for him.

Ninth child of General James & Hannah Parker Smith:

"Aunt Barsh"

Barsheba H. Smith (*James (General)*¹) was born about 1834 in Tennessee and died on 23 May 1904 in Coryell, Texas about age 70. She is named after her grandmother, Barsheba Harrington Smith Lusk. Barsheba married Joseph Morehead 19 Feb 1850 in Rusk, Texas. He died about 1857. Barsheba is enumerated with her mother, Hannah, and her daughter, F. Elizabeth Moorehead (born about 1851) in the 1860 census.

Tenth child of General James & Hannah Parker Smith:

"Uncle Birt"

Birt H. Smith ³ Smith (James (General) ¹) He died February 1863 probably from injury or illness from fighting in the Civil War. Patience wrote:

"[Jimmie], I wish you would take something for your cough. I fear it will get to be like Uncle Birts which is very bad.

[Page 118] Sunday Morning, Feb 15th 1863," We received a letter from Henderson yesterday. Uncle Birt was very low. No life expected for him long. Grandma too was in very bad health; but was improving some. I believe she will never do well again for if she loses her earthly Idol she will soon follow him."

When it became known that the Rev. G.L. Smith was moving from Coryell County, the following certificate was issued by a local congregation.

The State of Texas Coryell County:

The Primitive Baptist Church of Christ at Salem holding to the doctrine of Election Predestination effectual calling and the final preservation of the Saints through grace, do hereby certify that our dear beloved Brother G.L. Smith is a member in full fellowship with us and is dismissed from us when joined to another church of the same faith and order. Done by order of The Church in Conference Saturday before the fourth Sabbath in March 1877. - Wm Thomas Mod. H.M. Smith c.c.

¹ Reverend Green Lafayette was born on 5 Feb 1841 in Nacogdoches, Texas, died on 29 Jan 1886 in Stephens, Texas at age 44, and was buried in Oakwood Cemetery, Cisco, Eastland, Texas. He was a circuit riding preacher.

Notwithstanding the above, Rev. Smith was licensed by "the Gatesville Circuit- Granbury District N.W. Texas Conference, M.E. Church South, E.R. Barcus P.E. July 16, 1877. Thereafter, on September 8, 1877 the same license was renewed, on the back, by the following certificate:

This is to certify that the license of G.L. Smith, an exhorter, is renewed by order of the 4th Quarterly Conference of Eastland Mission, September 8, 1877- Granbury District of the N.W. Texas Conference. J.L. Calhoun Sec. L.P. Russett P.E. Pres. N.B. Johnston P.C.

In 1879, Rev. Smith's license was issued after "having been examined as the Discipline directs by the Quarterly Conference of Eastland Circuit of Breckenridge District of the N.W. Texas Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church South. J.H. Calhoun Sec. I.G. Warren Presiding Elder, Breckenridge District. In 1884, his license was renewed by order of the 4th Quarterly Conference of Eastland Circuit of Eastland District Aug., 30, 1884. A.K. Miller, Presiding Elder.

This is all the information I have on Rev. Smith. If there is anything you need clarification on, please feel free to contact me and I will be happy to help you.

Green married Eliza Mariah Karnes, daughter of Charles Thomas Karnes and Mary Holmes, on 28 Mar 1866 in Coryell, Texas. Eliza was born on 29 Sep 1840 in Kentucky, died on 21 Sep 1915 in Stephens, Texas at age 74, and was buried in Oakwood Cemetery, Cisco, Eastland, Texas.

She took care of her grandchildren after her daughter, Mary Susanna Smith Alexander, and son-in-law, James W. Alexander, died while the children were young.

The cause of Eliza's death was food poisoning from potato salad at an outdoor party. Her granddaughter, Bettie Alexander, also died of food poisoning the same day.

Note from Helen Price: The grandmother, Eliza Mariah Karnes (wife of Green) took care of the kids. Eliza and Bettie Alexander were poisoned and both died in Sep 1915.

A. J. Smith.

Judge A. J. Smith, who died at his home in Overton Dec. 30th, 1899, was born in Pike county, Tennessee, September, 1827.

He came to Texas in 1837, with his father, Gen. Smith, who with a large family, settled in Nacogdoches county, near the present county seat. After remaining there a few years the family moved to Rusk county and settled near where Sentell now lives, there being at that time no such town as Henderson and but a few white persons living north of Nacogdoches.

He grew to manhood with the barest opportunities of obtaining an education. While the new country afforded unexplored fields, boundless in extent and rich in adventure, and fascinating beyond description to the pioneer, yet the school house, the field, the orchard, the cottage, and the house of worship, existed only in the minds of the brave fathers and mothers who were busy protecting themselves and their children from savages. Under such unfavorable conditions it would not be strange for boys to grow to manhood without any knowledge of books beyond the mere ability to read and write. But it was not the case with Jack Smith.

² Andrew Jackson Smith became the first Judge of Rusk County, Texas under the present Constitution of the State of Texas. He was the Judge when his brother, Birt's will was probated in 1863. Andrew J. Smith became a merchant later.

He fitted himself for the needs of his time, and was merchant, surveyor, tavern-keeper, magistrate and sheriff before he was forty years of age. He was married early in life to Miss Mary Wadsworth, a member of another noted pioneer family. There is no doubt that this good woman was an important factor in assisting him to rise above the evil temptations that filled the pathway of the early pioneers; and she it was, by her loving kindness and tender devotion to home and duty, became instrumental in bringing out and developing his higher traits of character and which adorned his life in mature years and enabled him to master the passions that dominated the career of so many of the able and daring spirits of that day.

After the war he was for a number of years engaged in the milling business, at Bethel. Some time in the '70's' he was elected county judge and for many years thereafter he filled that place to the entire satisfaction of his constituency, and when the office passed from his hands there was no stain upon it, and the escutcheon that had always shielded Jack Smith was without blot or blemish.

Several years after the death of his first wife he married Mrs. Mayfield of Overton, and when his political career was over, he moved to Overton, where he engaged in the mercantile business and pursued it till his death. He was a devout christian, having been a member of the M. E. church since his early manhood. He was a Royal Arch Mason, and under the auspices of that honorable and ancient order, his remains were laid to rest in the Overton cemetery. Referring to his life, a few days ago, the Hon. C. J. Garrison, who was many years a partner in business with Judge Smith and who has known him intimately for many years, remarked to the writer, "Jack Smith was as honest a man as ever lived. He was truly a good man. He was charitable, never turning a deaf ear to those in want or in distress. He was a christian."-R. T. M.
